THAT:

1. The report of the Acting Manager Social Development and Community Services regarding the extreme domestic fire incident (arson) which took place at Roedtan-Thusang as contained in the agenda be noted;
2. The noble work that was immediately achieved by all the necessary role-players for the restoration of lives for the distressed victims at Roedtan-Thusang Hostel, be highly appreciated and valuably noted by council.
3. The victims on Saturday, 17 November 2018 have decided not to utilize the identified temporary Evacuation Centre (i.e. the new Community Hall), instead they opted to temporarily reside with their families and friends, hence the immediate decision by SASSA to hand-out once-off relief food parcels as indicated above;
4. SASSA detailed victim files that were electronically captured was finally supported by the officially signed-off letter from Waterberg District Municipality for endorsing that indeed Roedtan-Thusang Domestic fire incident did take place on Saturday, 17 November 2018 (i.e. local state of fire incident affirmation);
5. The Waterberg District Municipality should consider setting aside funding/budget for the procurement of Relief Army Tents, Blankets and Mattresses for the purposes of assisting distressed victims during emergencies/incidents/disasters.
